With the 2010-2011 school year in full swing, the Camp Gundalow afterschool program is off with a bang! The Chase Home for Children

The Chase Home for Children is licensed by the State of New Hampshire to provide residential treatment services for a maximum of twenty-five male and female adolescents who, for a variety of reasons, cannot live at home. Residential Treatment Services include behavior modification interventions; individual, family and group therapy; psycho-educational groups, family outreach; educational services; and, independent living skills building. Other program components include art, photography, computer skills, and woodworking as well as a Ropes Course (lower elements) located on the grounds.

As an Intermediate Level Residential Treatment Program, The Chase Home focuses on community based treatment. As such, all residents attend public school and receive therapy and medical services in the community. Residents also participate in recreational and cultural activities and are volunteers and/or employed in the community.

The fundamental principles of The Chase Home philosophy are based on respect, responsibility and community and the belief that children and adolescents need a positive and structured environment that fosters behavioral changes needed to maintain appropriate and safe behaviors in the community. The program strives to help each resident improve self-esteem and increase self-reliance.

The Chase Home has broadened its array of services and now offers Intensive Family Collaboration (IFC) which combines a short term (up to 45 days) residential stay with a 4 to 5 month aftercare component. The goal of IFC is to assist the family in managing the family's stress and facilitate connections to community supports which will enable the child to be maintained in a safe and stable family environment after the conclusion of IFC. While participating in IFC, residents may take full advantage of all programmatic activities of The Chase Home including participation in group work and cultural and recreational events.

The Community Diversion Program

The Community Diversion Program is a non-profit agency whose mission it is to provide an alternative to court involvement for youth and families in the Greater Seacoast Area of New Hampshire. Since 1995 we have worked to support youth in many ways through psycho educational programming, and community service support. We have recently added a Pre-CHINS program, to help intervene before court involvement. Since its inception, CDP has worked with over 5,000 youth through drug and alcohol prevention efforts, conflict resolution education, community service projects and a variety of programs designed to help youth navigate their teen years.

Our community service support program is always looking for new community service sites to work and collaborate with. Some benefits to agencies that engage youth volunteers include agencies being able to accomplish more and "check off" tasks on their to do list, youth gaining self esteem, developing competencies, and connecting with caring adults. If you would like youth to volunteer at your agency or have projects that could be done under CDP supervision please contact William Meub, Youth Service Coordinator at 603-430-8570 ext. 12 or e-mail william@communitydiversion.org. The HUB

The HUB Family Resource Center is becoming a program of Community Partners. This new relationship gives the HUB a stronger foundation to support all families in Strafford County by reducing the barriers to services for families and by increasing operating cost efficiencies for the HUB, allowing funds from donors and grants to go directly to education and prevention programs across the region.

This merger presents the opportunity for the Community Partners children and family services departments to build on the HUB's capacity as a family resource center and to create a continuum of services for families. Staff of the HUB will become part of the Community Partners family. Suzanne Iverson, Early Supports and Services Program Director is supervising HUB staff.

The merger increases opportunities for further collaboration and expansion of the new combined organization. The missions of both organizations focus on respectfully supporting individuals and families in the region to help them realize their maximum potential, whether as families or individuals addressing specific situations. While every person's need is unique, we value the opportunity to better serve households experiencing multiple challenges.

Referring agencies will be able to reach the HUB and Community Partners as they did before—phone numbers and e-mails will remain the same and through www.hubfamilies.org

This is a specialized matched savings program for low to moderate income persons who are pursuing one of four asset purchasing goals: (1) home purchase, (2) development of a small business enterprise, (3) pursuing a post-secondary education program, and (4) purchase of a car. RCA works with home purchase and education candidates, while applicants seeking the other asset goals are referred to other community partners. Participants meeting the program's training and savings requirements earn a 3:1 match on their savings assisting them to achieve their asset-purchase goals. The maximum amount of matching funds is $6000, which would represent a total account of at least $8000, plus accumulated interest. Development of a viable Seacoast Financial Education Network is another area of focus. The various financial education providers and resources will be cataloged in order to facilitate and expand the number of referrals. Any gaps in services will be identified and addressed. Lastly, we will promote the free tax preparation services provided through the CASH Coalition, including the VITA and AARP Tax Aide resources. The Asset Building mission is to expand the number of persons pursuing these opportunities, assist them in building savings and assets, and to strengthen the connections between the three areas of work. The contact person is Heather Weste, Asset Building Coordinator, Rockingham Community Action, 4 Cutts Street, Portsmouth, NH 03801, (603) 431-2911, hweste@rcaction.org.

► Rockingham Community Action Child Care Services (RCA CCS)

Our program provides Child Care Resource and Referral Services (CCR&R) and we sponsor the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP). We provide both services in both Rockingham and Strafford counties.

The CCR&R services include supplying families in Rockingham and Strafford counties with names of local child care programs, providing tips for families on evaluating and selecting quality child care and providing information to families on child care resources, including financial assistance.

We also provide ongoing training, visits and telephone consultations to support the professional development of child care providers in Rockingham and Strafford counties.

As a sponsor of the CACFP, we help to improve the health and eating habits of children. Children in participating family child care homes and child care centers receive nutritious meals which help keep them healthy and growing. The CACFP is a federal program that partially reimburses child care providers for the meals served to the children in their care. The programs we sponsor are located in Rockingham, Strafford and Hillsborough counties.

The VA Medical Center: Healthcare for Homeless Veteran's Program

The healthcare for homeless veterans (HCHV) staff engages homeless veterans through outreach and linkage to a full range of services that can facilitate a break in the cycle of homelessness.

The HCHV program provides outreach to shelters or referrals to transitional housing programs along with referrals to physical and psychiatric examinations with follow up for primary, psychiatry, and specialty care. Homeless veterans with mental health and chemical dependency problems may also receive ongoing case management.

The ultimate goal is to link veterans to VA services as well as to services provided by other community agencies serving the homeless; the HCHV program has three components: 1. outreach and referral services 2. grant and per diem programs 3. supported housing services. Wentworth Connections **

The Seacoast area is fortunate to have a wide range of high quality services for seniors, offered by many area enterprises and agencies. Two of those agencies, The Portsmouth Senior Center and Compass Care adult day, have undergone a management transition that became effective on January 5. The change relates to the fact that Parrott Avenue Place and the above mentioned programs are now a part of the Mark Wentworth Home – a non-profit nursing home and assisted living community that has been serving the Portsmouth area for nearly a hundred years, and has long had a vision of extending services out into the community. The services provided will continue to be based at Parrott Avenue and will now be known as Wentworth Connections. This transition was agreed to by the boards of directors of all of the agencies involved, with the expectation that by bringing the services together under a single management that some efficiencies can be gained and that the whole will become greater than the sum of its parts.

The management of Wentworth Connections is provided by Living Innovations. Cindi Shanley, is the hands on Director

Women Supporting Women

The Women Supporting Women Center is a wellness and enrichment center, open for more than 13 years, now serving both women and men. WSW offers lectures, workshops, support groups, a lending library, and psychotherapy, all aimed at the emotional, spiritual and personal growth of adults. A quarterly newsletter details the 15-25 different programs offered each cycle, as does the web site, www.wswcenter.com.

WSW began opening some of our groups to men for the first time this year. The programs offered run the gamut from important informational groups (ie, legal aspects of divorce, financial literacy, etc) to topical support groups, book and movie discussion groups, uplifting community builders (wine and food tasting, introductory watercolor class), spiritual (personal purpose, divine identity, energy healing), personal growth (communication skills, forgiveness, journaling) and whimsical angel and fairy classes.

WSW is also a safe, supportive place for women to learn and practice leadership skills, following the 12-hour leadership training class offered. New leaders are encouraged and assisted in their conception, development and implementation of a topic they want to offer a class in. The WSW philosophy is informed by the empowering work of the co-counseling community, incorporating such concepts as No Advice Giving, One Person Speaks at a Time (for about the same amount of time), speak from your own experience, etc. The typical participant ranges in age from 30-something to 70-something. It is a model for well people; those needing more specific attention are directed to the fine agencies in our community already doing crisis work and offering emergency services.

Working Futures

Working Futures is a transitional job readiness program crafted especially for NHEP participants. A four-week intensive program, Working Futures is designed to assist with building the soft skills required by today's employers. The program includes modules on: job survival skills, self development, and job searching, as well as individual modules that allow participants to focus their learning. Program graduates will have: job readiness skills, effective workplace behavior, improved self-esteem and confidence, and effective job search tools. All that in four (intensive!) weeks.

Workplace Success

Workplace Success is a work experience and training program that provides participants in the NH Employment Program with the skills, knowledge, and support to obtain unsubsidized employment. The Workplace Success concept comprises two components: community work experience and onsite volunteer activities and skills training, all of which develop and polish job skills needed by participants to enter or reenter the workforce. We have two offices in Rockingham County: Portsmouth and Salem. mdix@reaction.org www.reaction.org

Zebra Crossings

Our mission is to enrich the lives of children with a chronic health condition, including those at risk of developing a chronic health condition, by fostering greater self-confidence, a sense of independence and a desire to realize their full potential through fun and engaging enrichment programs that build a strong and caring community support network for families.

Programs are currently available to youth between ages 6 and 12 with diabetes, heart conditions, moderate to severe asthma, epilepsy or seizure disorder. Programs are scheduled periodically throughout the year with an emphasis on school vacation weeks and the summer months. We encourage our participants to join us for multiple programs and events; it is a wonderful way to increase their self-confidence and stay connected with friends who have a common understanding of their needs. Our programs are medically supervised to ensure the safety of all of our program participants. Programs are held at various locations throughout the greater seacoast region of NH. Recreational activities include art projects, sports, group games, swimming, climbing wall, and ropes courses.

In 2011, the goal is to expand programming to also include a broader range of health conditions and to facilitate family and sibling retreats as well.
